FEATURES

Top quality ammo box/storage box by AC-Unity. You will not find a better combination of lightweight and strength anywhere else. The intelligent design and the best polymer available, make this can incredibly rigged yet not at all heavy. 7-point rear hinge. 6-point hinge latch with 6-point lock.

Threaded brass corner inserts allow for install of military-style braided wire seals.

The rubber gasket keeps the can air-tight and dry. Can be used for food storage or as a flotation device.

Advanced polymer is more dent-resistant and seals better than USGI steel cans; it won't rust either!

Designed to be stacked via the molded feet at the bottom and foot pads on the lid.
